WHAT'S DIFFERENT ABOUT THE CLIENTELE ENROLLING IN YOUR CLUB LATELY?

In my 31 years of experience, I have never seen people so ready and open to positive change. I have so many new clients that just moved here during the flight to Florida and many clients that are newly single, too. The profile of the typical new client is optimistic, proactive, successful, authentic, and busy. They do not want to mingle with the players flooding the online dating network. My clients are also more realistic as to who is the best match for them, recognizing that their classic type may not be the best match for the long haul. I'm seeing open-mindedness and willingness to get it right this time. In fact, our 2020-2021 matches have been magical. I just love being in the middle of it all.

WHAT ABOUT ALL THOSE DATING SITES?

Online dating continues to get worse by the minute. Hidden agendas abound online. If you value who you are and what you have accomplished, then hire a real expert to do the work for you. Online dating is like Las Vegas—you could win, but the odds are you'll lose. You could lose your heart, money, soul and time. At my club, we attract single, divorced, and widowed clientele who are financially secure and like themselves, which is why they don't want to risk it online. They care about whom they date and how they spend their time. Many of my clients simply cannot be seen dating online or in the bar scene. They may be a CEO, doctor, or well-known, high-profile person. If this sounds like you, you will fit right in.
